CAMBRIA SOLUTIONS MARKS 11TH ANNIVERSARY WITH COMMUNITY SERVICE AT LOCATIONS ACROSS THE COUNTRY

Sacramento, Calif. – Aug. 6, 2014 – Cambria Solutions, an information technology and management consulting firm headquartered in Sacramento, Calif., with offices in Los Angeles, Calif.; Olympia, Wash.; Tallahassee, Fla.; and, Washington, D.C., will mark its 11th Anniversary this week. In company tradition, Cambria employees will celebrate with a day of community service in their respective cities.

On Friday, Aug. 8, Cambria teams across the country will volunteer their services to various community efforts.

While Cambria's home office team in Sacramento cleans up trails and picks up litter at Midtown's Southside Park, Cambria's Los Angeles team will be at the Environmental Nature Centering Newport Beach helping weed, plant, maintain trails and pick up litter.

The Olympia, Wash. team will assist the Hands On Children's Museum staff prepare for the museum's upcoming signature event, Sand in the City, Washington's largest free family sand festival held on Aug. 23 and 24.

The Cambria teams from Washington, D.C. and Tallahassee, Fla. will join forces with a project team in Jackson, Miss. where Cambria plans to open an office in the next few months. The group will assist painting the interior rooms at the Sims House transitional shelter for women and their children.

"With success comes responsibility to give back and I'm proud to say that it's been a Cambria tradition to mark each year of our success by volunteering in the communities in which we live and work," said Robert Rodriguez, Cambria president and CEO.

During the past 11 years, Cambria Solutions has earned a reputation for helping an impressive roster of clients deliver their most important projects; solve difficult challenges and take advantage of new opportunities. Since its founding in 2003, the company has experienced double-digit growth each year and has been recognized six times by Inc. Magazine as one of the nation's 5,000 fastest-growing, private companies. Earlier this year Cambria Solutions was selected as one of Consulting magazine's "Seven Small Jewels."
