CAMBRIA SOLUTIONS OPENS TALLAHASSEE OFFICE

Veteran Health and Human Services Executive Suzanne Vitale Joins Firm

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – February 5, 2014 -- Cambria Solutions, Inc., a national information technology and management consulting firm, is pleased to announce the opening of its new office in Tallahassee, Florida. The new office, located in the heart of downtown Tallahassee, will provide a local presence for serving Cambria's clients in the Southeast region. The addition of a Florida office gives Cambria five office locations throughout the United States, which include Sacramento, Calif., Los Angeles, Olympia, Wash., and Washington D.C.

Health and human services industry veteran, Suzanne Vitale, will lead the establishment and growth of the Tallahassee office. Vitale recently joined Cambria after having spent more than 25 years in the public sector leading and executing transformations across the spectrum of health and human services. Most recently, she served as Deputy Secretary for the Florida Department of Children and Families, where she oversaw agency operations and served as a key policy advisor on health care reform, public assistance, homelessness, child care licensing, substance abuse and mental health, and child/adult protection. During her career, Vitale has led the implementation of integrated eligibility and EBT systems, cutting edge strategies and tools to prevent public assistance fraud, data analytics for improved health and service outcomes, workforce management strategies and large scale project and change management initiatives to position agencies for success.

"Our new Tallahassee office will allow us to better serve our clients and expand our presence further in the Southeast and Suzanne is the perfect addition to our team to lead the Tallahassee office," said Cambria CEO and founder Robert Rodriguez. "The Health and Human Services industry is undergoing rapid change as states grapple not only with the opportunities and challenges in implementing the Affordable Care Act, but also tight budgets coupled with the demand for increased quality and cost effective services. Our firm understands these challenges and we are excited to have Suzanne join us."

Vitale's career includes serving as deputy undersecretary for the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington, D.C., deputy commissioner for the Texas Department of Human Services, executive director of Health and Human Services for Eagle County Colorado, regional administrator for USDA, and special assistant for Economic Services Administration within the Washington Department of Social Services. Vitale holds an undergraduate degree in Business Administration from Radford University in Radford, Va. and is a graduate of the LBJ School of Business Executive Development Program in Austin, Texas. She has chaired and served on a number of community board and foundations and has been recognized as one of the "Top 10 Latinas in the Bush Administration" by Latina Style Magazine as well as being listed as one of "80 Elite Hispanic Women" by Hispanic Business Magazine.
