CAMBRIA SOLUTIONS SHINES AS ONE OF CONSULTING MAGAZINE'S "SEVEN SMALL JEWELS"

Prestigious award recognizes top national small business consulting firms

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – February 10, 2014 – Cambria Solutions, Inc., a national information technology and management consulting firm, has been recognized as one of Consulting magazine's "Seven Small Jewels." Each year the magazine honors the nation's best niche firms – those that demonstrate exceptional growth and offer unique expertise and exceptional client service.

"This company was founded ten years ago with a goal to create something special, and all of us at Cambria are honored to receive this prestigious recognition from Consulting magazine," said CEO and founder Robert Rodriguez. "We have great people doing great work along with great clients and partners who value our unique abilities." Cambria's recognition follows on the heels of 60% year-over-year revenue growth in 2013 and recognition for the fifth time by Inc. magazine as one of the nation's 5000 fastest-growing, private companies.

According to publisher and editor in chief, Joseph Hornick, Consulting's "Seven Small Jewels" outperform the market every time and this year is no exception. "Year in and year out these 'little engines that can' defy the odds and crank out eye popping returns," says Hornick.

Joining Cambria, other firms recognized as Consulting's "Seven Small Jewels" are Aspen Advisors, Meridian Advisory Group, Pivot Point Consulting, Trexin, Trissential and Zanett. http://www.consultingmag-digital.com/consultingmag/february_2014/?pg=10&pm=2&u1=friend
